M. C. Chisholm, 317 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., states:

"The cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected in my case some years ago has been permanent, and the public testimonial I then gave in their favor still holds good. I was bothered a great deal by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, this weakness being especially annoying at night, when I was obliged to arise several times. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's drugstore, and had taken them only a short time before I noticed a marked improvement. They soon cured me, and I have since learned of several other cases where they have been used with good results."

Is a question that is often asked at this season. We know the difficulty presented by this problem and have made special preparations to help you solve it satisfactorily. It seems to be quite clear that the best present you can give him is to give him something he wants. The best place to get it is to get it where he gets what he wants. This store is that sort of a place, full of things a man wants, big things, such as Suits and Overcoats; small things, such as Shoes, Hats, Caps, Sweater Coats, Gloves, Shirts, Neckwear bought especially for the Xmas trade, Hosiery, Collars, Cuff Buttons and Scarf Pins. SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

Near Mobile, Ala., Saturday, when a Louisville and Nashville passenger train struck a cow the consequences were as unusual and unexpected as they were fatal. The cow was hurled to one side, striking a Negro who was watching the train go by. The Negro was knocked into a puddle of water and killed. In falling he struck a dog, which also was playing the part of innocent bystander, and its life was snuffed out, too.

COASTING ACCIDENT

Mr. James McGlone of East Fourth street, the talented designer and window dresser at Hunt's drygoods store, while coasting on the Washington pike in West Fourth street Wednesday night met with an accident in which he sustained a broken leg above the ankle, which will lay him up for at least four weeks. This is the first misfortune that has befallen participants in this exhilarating and exciting sport, but the season is early and more happenings are likely to occur.

WHY IS IT?

Just why Maysvillians go to Cincinnati to do their Christmas shopping is an enigma past solving, but such is the case nevertheless, as a visit to the C. and O. Depot any evening in the week and witness the returning purchasers with over loads of bundles will verify. The merchants of Maysville are carrying an exceedingly large and high-class stock of goods, and are asking less money for their wares than the Queen City merchants. Making money and earning a living in one community and spending money in another city is not exactly the right way to build up your home town. Patronize home merchants and keep the money in our midst.

Cut-flowers will be scarce for Christmas. Leave your order early and you will not be disappointed.

FRANKLIN FYLES, the dramatic critic, writing from New York to Sunday's Courier-Journal, says: "If the drama is moralizing, why are so many of its heroines wanton sinners?" a Clergyman asked me. "If the Church is so sure of itself," I answered back with impertinent and quite irrelevant question, "why do you preach more against your Devil than for your God?" That may strike you as smart at sight, but read it over and you will see that it means nothing. There is a cogent reason, however, for the abundance of vice and scarcity of virtue in dramatic heroines, anyway at the beginning of plays, although they usually mend their ways before the final curtain. Strange things happen to bad women oftener than to good ones; and they commonly raise hades for men; so authors derive thrills easier from indecency than decorum. More plays have been written about CLEOPATRA than all the saints in the calendar combined. That is apropos of the reappearance in New York on a single night of SARAH BERNHARDT, OLGA NETHERSOLE and LOUISE LESLIE CARTER as courtesans and JULIA MARLOWE as a murdereress."

Charles W. Traxel & Co.

In this issue of THE PUBLIC LEDGER appears the announcement of Hon. JOHN J. CRAIG, Mayor of the city of Covington, who has decided to enter the race for the Republican nomination for Railroad Commissioner from his District, the Third. Mayor CRAIG is one of the stalwarts of his party, and it is very evident that he is going to make a race that will make the other prospective eligibles do some tall hustling to keep up with his pace. There are forty-eight counties composing the Third District, and the extensive territory to be covered, and the three-quarters of a million of people residing therein, makes an early start in the canvass an imperative necessity. This District is heavily Republican, and if we are to continue the good records made by the incumbents the voters could do no better than select Mayor CRAIG for the responsible work entailed by the position. Covington is the second largest city in Kentucky, and Mr. CRAIG, its Mayor, is filling the office with ability and honor. He served as City Clerk at Covington for several terms, and his experience in that work thoroughly fits him for the duties of Railroad Commissioner. Mayor CRAIG is a popular mixer and will interview all the voters in the District that he possibly can see during the brief time from now until the nominating convention occurs next spring.

Good Liver Remedy Free

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloaty feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.
 What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.
 Thousands of people first learned of this remarkable cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles through a free sample. Mrs. Frank Lilly of Plainview, Ill., sent for one and it cured her and she is open in saying that she will never take pills or strong cathartics again, as Syrup Pepsin acts so mildly. Mr. W. L. Bryant, the Postmaster at Sardis, Tenn., says he will never be without it again. No sick person can afford to ignore a remedy so highly endorsed as this. It is good for all the family from infancy to old age, because it is mild, free from griping and yet promptly effective. Furthermore, results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.
 Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

SIXTH WARD FIRE
 The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock was caused by a big blaze at the home of Alice Duke, colored, in E. 13th street. The fire started from a defective flue igniting clothing in a closet adjoining the chimney. The Kinney Mac arrived on the scene in short order, and though the fire was burning briskly the boys soon had the blaze under control and in a few minutes the fire was out. The building was a 1½ story frame and was damaged to the extent of about $150, which was covered by insurance.

FIRE LICKS UP HOME
 In Bracken County While Owner is at Double Funeral in Maysville
 Mike Danahey Loses Dwelling and Valuable Contents
 Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the family dwelling and nearly the entire contents of Micheal Danahey's two-story residence situated a mile and a half West of Dover, in the East End of Bracken county, was burned to the ground, with a total loss of $2,500.
 While the fire was licking up their comfortable home Mr. and Mrs. Danahey were sitting in St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Maysville in attendance at the funeral services over the remains of Mr. John J. Coughlin and his 17-year-old nephew, who died within a few hours of each other, and whose double funeral attracted a large gathering of relatives and friends at the Church here yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Danahey came on here to be at the funeral leaving their two small sons at home, and they knew nothing of the destruction of their home until several hours after the funeral.
 The fire caught at 10 o'clock from a defective flue in the attic and when discovered the two children ran screaming to near neighbors and a general alarm was sounded, but too late to stop the greedy flames, which in a single half hour entirely destroyed the house and entire contents, clothing and all, except some furniture in one room, which the neighbors succeeded in getting out.
 Included in the loss was 150 gallons of fruit and preserves and 60 gallons of lard, all in the cellar, besides innumerable other effects and provisions always in a well-to-do farmers' home.
 The house was insured for $1,000, but the contents were without insurance and Mr. Danahey's loss above all will amount to $1,500.
